"If you could see your ancestors
All standing in a row,
There might be some among them
Whom you wouldn't care to know.
But there's a different matter which Requires a different view....
If you could see your ancestors
Would they be proud of You? "
( Anon )

" You are merely an interlude where your ancestors stop off for awhile on their way to becoming your descendants. "

" WHAT MAKES YOU.....

A person is not only the product of his environment, but is also a composite of the factors he inherited from his ancestors. Thus one may find an explanation of his personality and abilities in the study of the people who joined forces to produce him. It is impossible for a person to truly know himself without reviewing the sources from which he came ". ( Anon )

" It is wise for us to recur to the history of our ancestors.
Those who are negligent and regardless of their ancestors and their posterity, who do not look upon themselves as a link connecting the past with the future, in the transmission of life from their ancestors to their posterity, do not perform their duty to the world ". ( Daniel Webster )

*** THE FAMILY TREE ***

I think that I shall never see
The finish of a Family Tree.
As it forever seems to grow
From roots that started very low;
'Way back in ancient history times,
In foreign lands and distant climes.
From them grew trunk and branching limb,
That dated back to times so dim,
One seldom knows exactly when
The parents met and married then.
Nor when the twigs began to grow
With odd named children, row on row.
'Though a verse like this is made by me,
And the end's in sight as you can see;
'Tis not the same with Family Trees
That grow and grow through centuries.
( Willis G. Corbitt, Portland, Oregon, 1960 )

*** PREFACE ***

The purpose of this publication is to preserve the records of our ancestors for posterity. It is thought that a Family Tree is not complete unless all of its many branches are included. This has been done as fully as possible ... with lesser mention of the little-known ancestors.

Several years were devoted to research. The Court records were searched in York, Lancaster, Dauphin, Berks, Northampton, Luzerne, Lackawanna, Wayne, Cumberland, Chester and Franklin Counties, in Pennsylvania ..... also the Genealogical and Historical Societies of said counties. The Pennsylvania State Archives, Land office and Genealogical library, at Harrisburg; the D.A.R. library, National Archives and Congressional library, at Washington, D.C.; the Pennsylvania Genealogical library, at Philadelphia; the New York Public library; the New Jersey State Archives and Library, at Trenton, N. J.; -- all these were searched. Also cemetery and church records, and records were taken from family Bibles and personal records. Undoubtedly mistakes have been made, and future study may show that errors have been made in deductions, but great effort has been taken to be authentic. All statements concerning the ancestors have been proved to my satisfaction, and when in doubt a (?) has been affixed.

My first aim was to include all pertinent facts, not only about the direct ancestors, but also those of all known descendants, and in all cases to give source of information. Unfortunately the excessiveness of this plan soon became obvious, and had it been followed would have delayed publication indefinitely by the magnitude of the labor and expense involved. All information, with references, has been preserved, and can be found in my private files.

It is regretted that more statistics were not uncovered, and that some families could not be traced ... especially the female lines. It is hoped that future generations will continue what has been started, and, above all, that they will keep the Family Tree up to date ... for their descendants.

THE BRINDLE BRANCH OF MY FAMILY TREE

( Brindel, Brandel, Brandle, Brendle, Brendel, Brentol, Brandill )

Family tradition says that the first known Brindle in our line was George Brindle who came to America, from Germany, at an early day, and settled in Pa. He married, had several children ... went back to Germany on a visit, leaving his wife and children (one a babe in arms) in Pa. On the return voyage to America the ship, with all passengers, was lost at sea. (This must have been some time before the Rev. War)

Probably the Hans Georg Brandel who arrived in America in 1738, was my ancestor

( Pa. German Pioneers - by Strassburger & Hinke - 1934 - 3 Volumes)

Vol. 1, pg. 209 - 210 - 211:

Snow Two Sisters, Sep 9, 1738, at Philadelphia.

James Marshall, Master; from Rotterdam, but last from Cowes in England.. 41 men, 31 women, and 39 children.

Hans Jorg Brandel - age 28 ( would have been born 1710)

Joh's Philip Brandel - age 20 ( 1718 )

John Henrick Brandel - age 11 ( 1727 ) ( wrote own names )

( These were probably brothers .. names of women were given, but no Brandels)

1st generation: probably George Brandel - born 1710, in Germany.

2nd generation: Samuel Brindle ( proved ) born ca 1754, in Lancaster or Berks Co., died Aug. 1804, Southampton twp, Franklin Co, Pa., married, ca 1776, Elisabeth Stambach ( daughter of Peter and Catharine Stambaugh ( Germans ), of Cumberland Co, Pa.

Samuel Brindle was a farmer: he owned land in Lurgan twp, Cumberland Co, Pa. as early as 1775 ( later this was Southampton twp, Franklin Co. ). He owned much land, including the farm which later belonged to his son-in-law, Christian Dice.

Samuel was in the Revolutionary War, from Lurgan twp, Cumberland Co, Pa.
( Pa. Archives, 5th Series, Vol. 6: pg 142, 152, 398, 450 )

Lawrence Brindle ( thought to have been a brother of Samuel ) owned the next farm to Samuel ... they served together during the Rev.

Will of Samuel Brindle, written Jul. 1, 1804, was probated Aug. 31, 1804... he names his children as: John, Peter, George, Catharine, Ulery, and William, and says, "William is to be sent to school if a school can be had" ... his wife is not mentioned, so Elisabeth must have died between 1796 and 1804. Children were:

- 1 - John Brindle;- born 1777- died Mar. 1857- buried on the farm of his brother, George, at Woodstock, not far from Chambersburg. John was a blacksmith..... lived at St. Thomas.... he was a Capt. in the War of 1812.... married Polly,
2 known children: *1- Samuel Brindle
*2- Elisabeth ( Betsy )
- 2 - Peter Brindle;- born Aug. 17, 1779. Peter and Catherine Stambach- grandparents- were sponsors at his christening.
- 3 - George Brindle - 1780 - 1858 ( see more later )

- 4 - Catharine Brindle - born Sept. 26, 1783- died May 29, 1839- married Christian Dice ( 1779- 1858) ( my ancestors, see Dice )
- 5 - Ulery Brindle ( named in Will of his father: nothing more known of him )
- 6 - William Brindle - born Dec. 1796. On Sept. 6, 1805, Christian Dice ( his brother-in-law), was made his guardian; nothing more known of him.

 lived the rest of his life ... he was a large land holder, also a carpenter.
 His name is on the muster roll of Capt. Michael Quickel's Co- of York Co. of

THE DEUTSCH BRANCH OF MY FAMILY TREE

( Deitch - Deitsh - Ditch - Deutch - Deitsch - Deitrich - Dyche - Teutsch )

My first known Deutsch ancestor, Johann Philip, came to America in 1751 - it is thought that he came from Saxony, Germany. He with his wife, and at least one child, arrived at Philadelphia on the ship, St. Andrew, Captain James Abercrombie, from Rotterdam, but last from Cowes, England. "Foreigners who took the oath on Saturday Sept. 14th, 1751. 230 whole Freights, 8 Catholics, 10 Mennonists, and the remaining Calvinists" ... among them:

Johann Philip Deutsch ( wrote own name )

( Pa. German Pioneers- by Stressburger & Hinke- Vol. 1, pg. 457 )

1st generation: Johann Philip Deutsch ( called Philip )

-born 1719, Saxony (?), Germany.

-died Aug. 10, 1789, York, Pa.

Philip Deutsch settled in York, Pa. He belonged to Christ Lutheran Church, on George St., and taught in the church school ( called the Bee Hive ). Besides being a school-master, he was a musician, played the church organ and taught both organ and violin; he built the first organ in that church.

"Christ Church had no pastor between 1765 and 1767, and during this interim it is supposed that certain religious ceremonies were performed by Philip Teutsch ( Deutsch ) who had succeeded Bartholomew Maul as head school-master." Philip Deutsch was naturalized, at Philadelphia, on Oct. 26, 1765.

Anna Margaret ( sometimes called Margaretha ) was the wife of Philip. She was born, and married in Germany ( dates not known ) ... she died, prior to 1789, in York. Her maiden name is not known, but is thought to have been either Maul or Hartman.

Philip and Anna Margaret had 7 known children- 6 born in York.

1 - George Hartman - born 1750, in Germany - died 1812, in York, Pa.
married, 1778, Elizabeth Huber.

( my ancestors - see later )

2 - John Bartholomew - born Jul. 5, 1752 - bapt. Aug. 9 sponsors, Bartholomew Maul and wife Mary ( Maria ) Elizabeth.

3 - John George - born Feb. 5, 1756 - Died Dec. 8, 1760 - buried Christ church.

4 - John Martin - born Feb. 5, 1758 - died Jan. 8, 1761 - buried Christ church.

5 - Maria Eva - born Dec. 7, 1760 - bapt. Dec. 21 sponsors, George Ernest and Maria Eva Mayer.

6 - Juliana - born Feb. 23, 1762 - bapt. Mar. 7 sponsors, John Hay and wife Juliana.

7 - Anna Margaret - ( Peggy ) - born Mar. 30, 1764 married Mathias Goodyear - had children - lived in York

Family tradition says there was also a daughter, Elizabeth, who married a man named ..... Stroman, and a son, Frederick; these are not listed in the church records at York. If there were such children they must have been born in Germany, and came to America with their parents - and died prior to 1789; they are not mentioned in Will of Philip Deutsch, of 1789.

2nd generation: George Hartman Deutsch ( called Hartman ), ( son of Philip and Anna Margaret ) - born, 1750, in Germany: came to America in 1751, with his parents - thought to have been first child of Philip and wife - died Dec. 1812, York, Pa. - buried Christ Church.

Hartman married, Oct. 6, 1778, Elisabetha Huber ( thought to have been a daughter of Catherine Elizabeth and John Jacob Huber ) ... married by Rev. John Casper Stoever, a Lutheran minister, at Warwick, Lancaster Co., Pa. ( now a part of Lititz ). Catherine Elizabeth was a widow in 1778 - so John Jacob had died prior to 1778. The Hubers were Swiss, and had come to Pa., from Switzerland, at a very early date, and settled in Lancaster Co., Pa.

As a young man Hartman Deutsch was drafted into the British Army ( Royal Provincial Troops ) .. date not known, but he was with them in 1773 when a Furlough was granted him for three weeks .. signed by General John Burgoyne, at Monmouth, New York.

In Feb. 1775, the second company of volunteers was formed in York, with Hartman Deutsch as Captain .. later this company, with several others, was dissolved, and the men became a part of the 5th and 6th companies. Hartman served as a private the rest of the Revolutionary war.

Hartman was with General George Washington at Valley Forge .. he crossed the Delaware with him .. he was very fond of General Washington, who personally saved his life once. Hartman was at the battle of Fort Mifflin, where he was taken prisoner, and confined in the Old Dutch Church ( which was used as a jail ) .. he joined the British troops to get out, and at the first opportunity deserted and rejoined his own troops.

Sometime during the war - late in 1777, or early in 1778 - Hartman was sent to the hospital at Lititz, Pa. .. probably from Valley Forge: he was sick, not wounded. Elisabetha ( Elizabeth ) Huber, a Moravian ( church ) girl, was nursing in the hospital .. they met, fell in love, and later married. The hospital was the 'Brethren's House', in the Moravian church settlement at Lititz, Lancaster Co., Pa. The Hubers were members of the Moravian church, who did not believe in actual fighting, but did everything possible to help the war effort .. especially in caring for the sick, and in furnishing food and clothing.

Hartman was a linen weaver, in York, Pa.

Christian Theis lived in the corner of Lancaster, Berks, and Dauphin Co's, which is now in Lebanon Co., Pa. . . he and wife belonged to the German Reformed church - it is thought that he was a farmer . . he was probably one of the three Christian Theis - Leis - Deis - who were in the Rev. war, from Lancaster Co.

Christian Theis ( the 1st ) might have been a son of John Theiss ( Tice ) and wife Regina Koppenhoffer ( daughter of Thomas, who died in 1762, leaving a wife, Elizabeth, and 8 children ). John and Regina Theis had a son, John Christian.

The Dice name is German. It is not known when my ancestors came to America, or what part of Germany they were from. It is probable that our family is descended from Johann Philipp Theis, who came from Germany ( through Holland and England ) to N.Y. in 1710, settled first in the Scholarie Valley, N.Y., and from there went to the Tulpehocken Valley, in Pa., in 1728 - they belonged to the German Reformed church

Maria Elizabeth Bollinger was probably a daughter of John Adam Bollinger ... The Bollinger ( Bolsinger - Bulinger ) family was Swiss .. they were among the Mennonites who came from Switzerland to America at an early day, probably about 1732, and settled in Lancaster Co., Pa.

2nd generation: Christian Theis ( only son of Christian Theis and wife Maria Elizabeth Bollinger ). Christian changed the spelling of the name to DICE ... "to make it less German and more American".

Christian Dice was born March, 1779 - in what is now Lebanon Co., Pa. .. died July 28, 1858 ( age 79 ), near Shippensburg, Pa., Southampton twp, Franklin Co., Pa. - where he had lived for many years .. buried in the German Reformed churchyard, Shippensburg .. when the new church was built all the old graves, with stones, were moved to the Spring Hill Cemetery.

Christian married, 1804/5, Catharine Brindle ( daughter of Samuel and wife Elizabeth ( Stambach ) Brindle. ( See Brindle history ).

Catharine was born Sept. 26, 1783, Southampton twp, Franklin Co., Pa. - died May 29, 1839 ( age 56 ) - buried along side Christian. Christian and Catharine had 7 children:

- 1 - Catharine Elizabeth - born Dec. 23, 1805 - died July 21, 1882 - age 77 married James Waddle - 4 ch ( see later )
- 2 - Samuel - born Nov. 12, 1809 - died Sept. 15, 1894 - age 85 - no ch. married Margaret ( Peggy ) Naugle ( she d, June 25, 1881 - age 54 )
- 3 - Julian - born Nov. 30, 1815 - died 1906 - age 91 - not married; lived with her brother, Joshiah, on the old family farm, near Shippensburg.
- 4 - George - born June 18, 1818 - died Feb. 1, 1898 - age 81 married Agnes Catherine Thomson - 5 ch ( see later )
- 5 - William ( Billy ) - born Nov. 11, 1820 - died Oct. 27, 1891 - age 71 married Susan Redick - 7 ch.
( my ancestors, see later )
- 6 - Joshiah - born May 1, 1822 - died Mar. 1, 1910 - age 88 - not married. .. lived with sister Julian.
- 7 - John Wilson - born May 8, 1828 - died Feb. 7, 1910 - age 82 married Sarah Rank - 8 ch ( see later ).

All children were born on the farm, 3 miles south of Shippensburg, but in Franklin Co. (Southampton twp) .. said farm had belonged to Samuel Brindle ( from ca 1775/6 ) and then to Christian Dice, who bought it from the estate of Samuel Brindle ( his father-in-law ) ca 1805.

On Sept. 6, 1805, Christian Dice was appointed guardian of his brother-in-law, William Brindle ( son of Samuel ) age 9 years.

Christian was a farmer - owned much land ... he and wife belonged to the German Reformed church .. he was prominent in church and community life .. was an elder in Grace Reformed Church, Shippensburg, for many years.

3rd generation: William Dice ( Billy ) ( 5th child of Christian and Catharine ).. born Nov. 11, 1820, on the old family farm, three miles south of Shippensburg, Southampton twp, Franklin Co., Pa., .. died Oct. 27, 1891 ( Melacholia ) age 71, at his home in Chambersburg ( where he had moved several years before ) .. buried Cedar Grove Cemetery, Chambersburg.... married, 1843, Susan Redick ( daughter of Jacob and Marie ( Stough ) Redick ). ( see Redick history )

Susan was born July 12, 1822, at Stoughstown, Newton twp, Cumberland Co., Pa. .. died Nov. 3, 1884 ( apoplexy ) age 62, at the farm home near Scotland, Pa.

Susan was about 5 ft. 2 in. in height - fleshly - medium, straight, brown hair - blue eyes ... a retiring, mild (and sweet) disposition .. beloved by all.

William was about 5 ft. 8 in. in height, weight about 150 lbs., light brown, straight, hair - light blue eyes .. a gentle man, with a mild disposition .. he and family belonged to Zion's Reformed church, in Chambersburg, where was an elder for many years .. he was a carpenter, turned farmer .. he built a large brick house, on his farm near Scotland, Green twp, Franklin Co., when he was first married .. this house is still standing, in good condition. Across the road from it is the Scotland Golf Club ( on what used to be part of the farm of 360 acres ) .. The Conococheague River runs through it.

William and Susan had 7 children, all born on the farm.

Married, June 12, 1884, at York Pa., Eleanora Adelia Spangenberg
 ( daughter of Frederick and Fanny ( Ilgenfritz ) Spangenberg )
 ( see Spangenberg history ).

Eleanora ( Spangenberg ) Dice - born May 8, 1859, at Archbald, Luzerne Co., Pa. ( now Lackawanna Co. ) - died May 20, 1945, age 87 ( from complications following the flu ), at the old home 'The Catalpas', near Prescott, Wash., buried in the family plot, Waitsburg, Wash.

Eleanora married, as 2nd husband, March 11, 1936, Charles Clague ( his 1st marriage ), a native of Castletown, Isle of Man, England .. he was born Mar. 21, 1861 .. died June 2, 1936 - buried in Dice plot, Waitsburg, Washington.

Frank was educated for the ministry ( German Reformed Church ). It was the great desire of his father that one of his sons become a minister. Neither Kramer or Cal felt the 'call', so it fell on Frank ( the youngest ) to try and carry out the wishes of his father. He was educated with this in mind, but he felt a 'call' to be a good layman, not a minister; and that he was for the rest of his life. When he migrated to Prescott, Washington, in 1889, there was no Reformed church available, so he and wife joined the Presbyterian church ... of which he became an active member, being an elder and Sunday School superintendent for many years.

Frank had a mild, sunny disposition, with a keen sense of humor .. popular among friends and the community .. an active, inquiring mind, interested in many things. He was 5 ft. 8 in in height, and weighed ca 145 lbs; had very fine medium light brown, straight hair, bright light blue eyes. When he married, in 1884, he was working for his brother-in-law, John Fallon ( cabinet making ) in York, Pa. .. this he continued until about Jan. 1886, when he and wife moved to Savannah, Ga. .. where he was assistant engineer at the city gas works. His health failed, and the doctor advised him to take up farming and live in the country. This advice he took, and after spending some time in York, Pa., the family migrated, in May 1889, to near Prescott, Walla Walla Co., Washington .. where his brother, Kramer, was living. At first they lived on a fruit ranch, later buying a large wheat ranch, where he lived for the last 40 years of his life.

Eleanora ( Spangenberg ) Dice was called Ella by her mother, Nora by her father, Nelly by her first husband ( Frank ) and Eleanora by 2nd husband. She was intelligent and talented. Her musical education began at about four years of age .. her father taking her from Archbald, Pa., to New York City for lessons on the organ and piano, and later in voice. She looked forward to going to Europe for further education, but her father died when she was thirteen, and she, being the oldest of six children, it became necessary for her to help her mother support the family. She taught music from the time she was thirteen, and when she was fifteen began teaching in the public school in York, Pa. .. which she continued until her marriage. She had a pleasing personality, emotional, with a fiery temper .. a dual personality .. a born leader, but inclined to be a dictator .. popular among friends and the community. She was about 5 ft, 3½ in. in height, and weighed from ca 110 lbs. to very fleshy in later life .. had dark brown curly hair, hazel eyes, and fair skin.

Frank and Nelly had four children:

And they were also my G.G.G.G. grandparents through their son, George (2nd) and his second wife, Maria Schartel, and their son, Jacob.

He added to it until he owned much land, both in Manchester and Dover twp's - he also owned a mill, in Dover twp, where he lived. Abraham and Ellen had a son, who died at birth.

3rd generation: Jacob Ilgenfritz, Sr; ( son of George, the 2nd, and his 2nd wife, Anna Maria ( Shartel ) Ilgenfritz
 .. born Jan. 17, 1778 - Dover twp, York Co., Pa.
 .. died 1828 - left no Will .. his estate was administrated by his brother-in-law, Henry Michael ( York Co. Court

Jacob was confirmed, Christ Church, York, on Whitsunday, 1795 - age 16 years. Susanna Lau was confirmed same class, same day - age 15 yrs.

It is thought that Jacob and Ann had several children, but only one known:

- 1 - Jacob Ilgenfritz, Jr. - born ca 1812 - York Co. - died Dec. 1837, Philadelphia, Pa.
 married Eleanora ( Ellen ) Ilgenfritz
     (my ancestors, see below)

4th generation: Jacob Ilgenfritz, Jr. ( son of Jacob, Sr. and Ann ( Lau ) .
 .. born ca 1812, York Co., Pa. - died Dec. 1837, Philadelphia, Pa.
 .. married, ca May 1837, Eleanora ( Ellen ) Ilgenfritz ( about a 2nd cousin )
 Jacob and Ellen had one daughter:

- 1 - Frances Anna ( Fanny ) Ilgenfritz - born Mar. 2, 1838, York, Pa.
 died July 20, 1930 ( age 92 ) Walla Walla Co., Washington - married, 1857, Frederick Spangenberg.
 (my ancestors - see Spangenberg history)

There was a 'Feud' going on among the Ilgenfritz families; it is thought to have been between the children of the 1st and 2nd wives of George ( the 2nd ), and they never associated in any way .. the young people were forbidden to meet. Eleanora ( Ellen ) went to Baltimore, to visit her uncle, John Ilgenfritz, in 1836, and while there met her distant cousin, Jacob Ilgenfritz, Jr., who was also visiting .. and the young folks fell in love. Her folks opposed the marriage, and his mother was furious ( his father was not living - having died in 1828 ) .. she forbid Jacob from seeing Ellen, and threatened what she would do if he did. So .. they eloped to Philadelphia and were married. Jacob began hunting work, he was a printer, but his mother hounded him, and got him discharged from every position he got. He tried for work of any kind, but it was winter, and there was none .. a baby was expected .. and still he could find no work .. he took cold .. it developed into pneumonia, and he died (from lack of medical attention, and malnutrition). Ellen's folks, hearing of her plight, went to Philadelphia, and took her back to York with them .. where her baby was born about three months later.

Ann ( Lau ) Ilgenfritz refused to acknowledge the baby, and never helped Ellen and the baby in any way .. it is thought that she had much property .. the Lau's were wealthy farmers of Manchester twp, York Co., and she had inherited much wealth.

Eleanora ( Ellen ) (Ilgenfritz ) Gartman, lived in York, Pa., until 1905, when she went out to the state of Washington - with her daughter, Fanny Spangenberg - to live with her granddaughter, Eleanora ( Nelly ) and Frank Dice, on a large farm, near Prescott Washington ( Walla Walla Co. ) .. where she died, Jan. 19, 1911, at the ripe old age of 97 ( lacking ten days ) - she is buried in the Dice family plot, City Cemetery, Waitsburg, Wash .. which is about five miles from the Dice home.

Ellen was about 5 ft. 3 in. tall, weight ca 120 lbs., light brown, wavy, hair, medium blue eyes, fair skin. She had an active mind, with a keen sense of humor .. a good memory, and loved to tell stories of 'the good old days' .. she had a sunny disposition, a pleasing personality .. was a noted cook, seamstress and housekeeper.

THE REDICK BRANCH OF MY FAMILY TREE

( Reddick, Reddig, Reidig, Readig, Rettic, Rettig )

It is not known when my Redick ancestors came to America, or who they were, but it is known that the family was originally from Scotland -- succeeding generations migrated to Ireland, where they probably lived for a couple of generations, eventually coming to America -- where they were called 'Scotch-Irish'. We find the Redick name among the residents of Dumfriesshire ( Scotland ) ... among the low land clans of Dumfries and Kirkcudbright Counties .. as early as 1547. The Scotch-Irish, when coming to America, docked mostly at New Castle, Delaware, and settled in Chester Co., the southeast part of York Co. ( now Adams Co.), and going from there up into Cumberland, Dauphin, and other counties. No ship lists are available for them .. they, being already subjects of Great Britain, did not have to take the 'oath' when they arrived in America ( as the foreigners did ). We find Redicks in Va. as early as 1687.

We may be descended from Robert Redick, who belonged to the Marsh Creek Presbyterian Church in the early 1700's .. he died in 1737 .. Marsh Creek was then in York Co., Pa. .. it is now Adams Co., and is a part of Gettysburg.

My first known ( proved ) Redick ancestor was Jacob Redick, who died, at Stoughstown, Cumberland Co., Pa., on Oct. 15, 1825. Stoughstown is 7 miles from Shippensburg. Jacob was a shoemaker .. he owned a stone house in Stoughstown, but not much other property .. Jacob Stough, Esquire ( his brother-in-law ) was administrator of his estate .. Jacob died young, leaving a wife and 5 small children .. he was a nephew of Mathias Wolf, of Shippensburg, who died in 1814.

Jacob served in the War of 1812 .. from 1812 to 1814 .. he saw service at Buffalo, and was paid a bounty of $6.00 for his march to Erie.

( Pa. Archives, 6th Series, Vol. 8, pg 19, 20, 28, 622 )

Jacob married, ca 1811, Marie Stough ( daughter of Jacob, Jr., and Catharine Stough ) ( see Stough history ). Jacob and Marie had 5 children:

"Uncle Bill went to Ohio with his brother, John, when a young man. He joined the Confederate army, and fought against his own brothers ( who were in the Union army ) .. he was wounded sometime during the war."
(This Bill Redick is the nephew of my grandmother, Susan Redick Dice, whom she recognized when the Confederate troops marched past her home, in Green twp, Franklin Co., Pa. (Scotland, not far from Chambersburg).. she called him down ( in front of his troops ) for being in the southern army, and fighting against his brothers .. F.D.H. ).

THE SPANGENBERG BRANCH OF MY FAMILY TREE

( Spangenberg, Spangengurgh, Spangenburg, Spangenberg, Sponenberger, Spannburgh, Spangenbarre, Spanderbaro, Spandenbarrow, Spanjenburgh, Spanderbarren, Spanningber, Spanderbarren, Langlenbury, Thansenburgh, Zangerberger, Zangangurgh, etc. )

My first known ( proved ) Spangenberg ancestor was Johann Augustus, who came to America on the ship Queen of Denmark: "List of the Hanoverians imported .... from Hamburg; but last from Cowes, Capt. George Parish, Qualified 11th Sept 1753, at Philadelphia ... 102 men with their families" ... among them:

Joh. Aug't Spangenberg ( wrote own name )

1st generation: John Augustus Spangenberg .. born ...? probably in Hanover, Germany. .. died June, 1787, Frankford twp, Sussex Co., N.J.
.. married, 1st, in Hanover, May 7, 1739, Ilsa Catherine Spiel - 4 known children.

Family tradition says: John Augustus was a close relative of the well-known Moravian ( church ) missionary to Pa. .. Bishop Augustus Gottlieb Spangenberg ( born July 15, 1704 - d, Sept. 18, 1792 .. the 4th son of Rev. George Spangenberg, of Klettenberg, Prussia ( Lutheran clergyman ) and wife Elizabeth Neses.

Family tradition also says that the four brothers and one sister of John Augustus went to England, and had their names changed to "Pembroke".

John Augustus was a farmer .. we find him in Frankford twp Sussex Co., N.J., in 1761 .. it is not known when he first settled there .. the location of his home has been found, with part of the crumbling foundations of the house, and an old orchard .. it is now a state game ( or bird ) reserve.

Children of John Augustus and Catherine were:

- 1 - Frederick Carl - born Jan. 26, 1740 - Hanover, Germany.
( my ancestor - see later )
- 2 - Anna Eleanora Margaretha - born April 15, 1743 ( nothing more known of her)
- 3 - Sophia Maria - born Sept. 12, 1745 - Hanover ( nothing more known of her)
- 4 - Catharine ( Cattree ) - named in her father's will, of 1785 -- was probably born in America ( nothing more known of her )

Ilsa Catharine ( Spiel ) Spangenberg came to America with her husband, John Augustus .. it is not known when she died, but after her death John Augustus married again, to Anne ( whose name might have been Swietser ), and had at least one daughter ..

- 5 - Nelly ... mentioned in her father's Will, nothing more known of her.

Information on the first Spangenburgs from the Archives, Hannover, Hannover, Germany; New Jersey Archives; Sussex Co. records; Journal of Thomas Spangenberg, and family records.

Ship lists from: Pa. German Pioneers - by Strassburger and Hinke -
Vol. 1 - pages 517, 518, 519

2nd generation: Frederick Carl Spangenberg ( known as Frederick )
 .. born Jan. 26, 1740, Hanover, Germany -- came to America in 1753 .. died ....? Branchville Co., N.J. - Sussex -
 .. was married four times .. had over 17 children

As a young man Frederick studied law, in Philadelphia, but gave it up, and became a farmer with his father. In 1807 he became the first Gate Keeper of the Morris Turnpike, which extended from Long Bridge, Frankford twp, Sussex Co., to Hainesville, in Sandyton twp. No record has been found to show that Frederick served in the Rev. war, but he and his father both had Hessian prisoners of war billeted on them .. for whom they were responsible .. "to guard, and give them board and bed".

Frederick married, 1st, ca 1766, Susanna Shenkle, daughter of Henry and Ann Margaret ( Eva ) Schankel. Henry was born near Strassburg, Alsace-Lorraine, Germany .. came to America on the Ship Robert and Alice, Sept. 11, 1738. Henry was a farmer, settled in German Valley, Roxburg twp., Morris Co., N.J. .. was married three times; 1st, to Sarah Herbert

2nd, to Ann Margaret ( Eva ) Neighbor

3rd, to Elizabeth Bercott

Henry had over 14 children -- he died ca June 1769

Ann Margaret ( Eva ) Neighbor was the daughter of Leonard and Maria Margaretha Neighbor ( Nachbar ) - who came to America on the same ship as Henry Shenkle .. and also settled in German Valley. Leonard and Margaretha had 4 children:

1 - Leonard Neighbor

2 - Anna Margaretha - died prior to 1765 ( M, Henry Shenkle )

3 - Anna Martha - ( M, Matthias Trimmer )

4 - Mary Elizabeth - ( M, John William Welch )

Leonard was born, 1698 , in Germany .. died Aug. 26, 1766 - German Valley

Margaretha - born Aug. 1697 in Germany .. died Nov. 17, 1770 - German Valley.

Susanna ( Shenkle ) Spangenberg - born .....? died ca Sept. 1788.

Frederick and Susanna had 10 children - all born in Frankford twp., Sussex Co., N. J.

1 - Mary Elizabeth - born Aug. 1767 - died Oct. 13, 1847 married, June 14, 1784, Samuel Smith - had 10 ch. ( see later )

2 - Catharine - born ca 1768 - died Sep. 11, 1851

married, Dec. 25, 1787, William Snook - 8 children ( see later )

3 - Anna - born ca 1770 - d, 1814 married, Jan. 1, 1794, Abraham Kyser ( Kiser - Hyzen ) 10 known children ( see later )

4 - Susanna - born 1772 - died 1844

married, 1793, William Schoonover - 17 children ( see later )

5 - Thomas Augustus - born June 7, 1775 - died April 8, 1864 married, Jan. 2, 1798, Susanna Headley - 13 children.

( my ancestors - see later )

6 - Henry - born 1777 - died 1856

married, 1st, 1800, Sarah Dilistone

" , 2nd, 1806, Catharine Barlow - 12 children ( see later )

- 7 - John - born ( family says 1784 (?) died 1856
 married, 1st, Mary Fargo - 6 children
 " 2nd, Mary Bronson - 12 children ( see later )
- 8 - Frederick - ( nothing more known of him )
- 9 - Mary - born July 4, 1783
 married, Feb. 5, 1807, Henry Beemer - 10 children ( Henry b, Jan. 2, 1781)
- 10 - Peggy - born ? - died ?
 married William Britton ( Brillen ) on Oct. 13, 1806.
- 2nd wife of Frederick - thought to have been Barbara Mearing - 7 children.
- 3rd wife of Frederick - Susanna (?) ..? - thought to have had children.
- 4th wife of Frederick - probably Sarah Eldridge, M, July 20, 1806 - he died suddenly and left her a widow - no children.

Barbara Mearing ( Maring ) was one of the wives of Frederick - thought to have been the second. Her father, George Maring, in his Will, of 1815, mentions his daughter Barbara, 'late wife of Frederick Spangenberg', and mentions children of hers, but does not name them.

Other children of Frederick - probably of 2nd wife, Barbara (?) :

George Spangenberg - lived in Wayne Co., Pa. - bought land in Dyberry twp, in 1805 .. married, Jan. 19, 1812, Sally Seely - had children:
 a daughter, Eleanor, b, Ap. 6, 1813, Wayne Co. - died 1879 in Ohio. Eleanor married, 1838, George Falsom, of Warren, Ohio.

Andrew Spangenberg - died, at Bethany, Pa., Mar. 23, 1817, age 23 ( 1794 ) buried in the family plot of Thomas Spangenberg ( his half brother ), Bethany, Pa.

Jacob Spangenberg - married Feb. 18, 1819, Dolly Barlow, Sussex Co., N. J.

Margaret Spangenberg - married, Nov. 4, 1811, John Vance, Sussex Co.

Susan Spangenberg ( probably a child of 3rd wife ) married, May 23, 1820, John Barlow.

3rd generation: Thomas Augustus Spangenberg ( son of Frederick and Susanna )
 .. born June 7, 1775, Branchville, Frankford twp, Sussex Co., N.J. .. died April 8, 1864, Bethany, Wayne Co., Pa., age almost 89 years.

Thomas was a prominent figure in the early history of Wayne Co...in 1806 he was elected supervisor of Dyberry twp .. in 1811 Governor Snyder appointed him Justice of the Peace - an office which he held for 52 years - in those days a Justice of the Peace presided at all kinds of court actions .. a record was found where he was the judge at a murder trial .. he married 160 couples -- was known as Squire Spangenberg. In 1798 he was elected ensign, Wayne Co., Militia -- in 1800 was elected Captain of the Dyberry Co...he held many offices in Wayne Co. -- auditor, constable, commissioner, treasurer, etc.

On Feb. 9, 1798, Thomas, with his bride, migrated from Sussex Co., N.J., through the wilderness to Dyberry creek, not far from what is now Bethany, Wayne Co., Pa. - they brought all their possessions in a rude cart, pulled by one ox, who was harnessed like a horse .. they lived on the Dyberry until their house burned ( with daughter Phoebe in it ) in 1814, and then moved into a house in Bethany, which he had had built ( it is still standing, a beautiful old place ), where he died.

Thomas was a tall man, 6 ft. 3 in., and very vigorous...it is said that he retained all his faculties, including teeth, sight, hair, and an active mind, up to the end of his long life (89) -- when he died, in 1864, he had had 13 children, 19 grandchildren, and 20 great grandchildren.

Thomas married ( 1st ) Jan. 2, 1798, at Newton, Sussex Co., N.J., Susanna Headley - Susan was born 1779, Washington twp, Morris Co., N.J. - died Sept. 25, 1824, Bethany, Pa. - buried in the churchyard of the Presbertain Church, at Bethany .. in the family plot, where Thomas, and several of their children are buried. -- her tombstone - a tall gray stone, says:

"In Memory of Susan - wife of Thomas Spangenberg
Died Sept. 25, 1824, age 45 years

" Friend behold as you pass by
The gloomy vault in which I lie
Prepare for death for soon you
With me lie mouldering in the clay "

Along side is another tall gray stone:

"In Memory of Thomas Spangenberg Squire
Died April 8, 1864, age 88 years and 10 months
"May he rest in peace"

Susanna was the daughter of Robert Headley, Jr., and wife Susanna ( Hannah ). Robert was probably the son of Robert Headley, Sr., and 1st wife, Susanna. Robert, Sr., was born ca 1718/20, died 1806; he was the son of Samuel and Mary Headley. ( Samuel b, 1690 - d, 1755). Samuel was probably the son of Thomas Headley, who was the son of Leonard Headley, who died 1683, and wife Sarah Diamond, daughter of Thomas Dymond, of N.Y. The Headleys were English .. had come to America at an early date and settled in Conn., later migrating to N.J. Leonard settled near Elizabethtown, Union Co., in 1664 - the place was later called Headleystown.

Thomas and Susan had 13 children -- only 8 of them known - the others probably have died in infancy.

1 - Elizabeth ( known as Aunt Betsy ) born Aug. 1799, near Bethany, died Dec. 25, 1882, at Scranton, Pa. - buried at Greenwood, Long Island ( age 83 years ) .. married, 1819, John Brown Raymond ( Ju. 3, 1795 - Dec. 30, 1882 ) son of Judd Raymond of Honesdale, Pa. Betsy and John Raymond had one child:

*1 - Frances A. Raymond -- died 1913 - age 93 (1820) married Caleb B. Hackley - had one daughter:

**1 - Daisy Hackley - who died when she was 5 years old.

2 - Phoebe - born June 22, 1801 - died Mar. 3, 1814 - her stone, a tall black one, says:

"Phoebe, daughter of Thomas Spangenberg, Consumed by fire, Mar. 3, 1814."

- 3 - Catherine - born Sept. 19, 1803 - ( was still living in 1864 )
 married, 1st, Dan Roberts - had 2 girls - he died.
 " 2nd, John E. Lewis - 3 children:
 *1 - John Lewis
 *2 - Edward Lewis
 *3 - Fannie Lewis - married ..... Ham - had children.
- 4 - Louise - born 1807 - died Feb. 20, 1832 - buried Bethany.
 ( she was married, perhaps to a Hanford, but no names or dates )
- 5 - John Augustus S. - born Aug. 1, 1812 - died Dec. 6, 1881 married, 1832, Susan Adelia Brown
 ( my ancestors - see later )
- 6 - Dan S. - born 1816 - died May 16, 1822 - buried at Bethany.
- 7 - Julia Augusta - born Dec. 8, 1818 - died Aug. 8, 1833 - buried at Bethany
- 8 - Esther E. - born Dec. 1820 - died .....? not married Esther went to California, with friends, around the Horn, sometime before the gold rush of 1849 - she was a talented musician and entertainer -- her friends owned stock in the Comstock silver mines -- when a new mine, named the Strawberry lode, was opened up, she bought stock in it -- and took some of the first silver taken out, home with her -- which was afterwards made into a cup ( I have the cup ).

In 1855, on her second trip to Calif., she was shipwrecked. " ... on Oct. 3, twenty-seven days out from Sidney, the Bisque Julia Ann ( a three masted vessel ) was wrecked on a reef enclosing the Scilly Isles
 -- they, 56 people ( only two had been drowned ) finally reached a small baren island, where they were marooned for two months before being rescued and taken to San Francisco ... their destination."

Thomas Spangenberg married, 2nd, sometime after the death of Susan, to Maria K.....? probably about 1833.

Maria was born, in N.J., Mar. 18, 1783 -- died Nov. 22, 1850, at Bethany, buried in the family plot -- had no children.

Thomas, in his Will, of 1864, mentions his grandson, Charles H. Hanford ... and in 1883, Mrs. William Westson, a granddaughter of Thomas Spangenberg, was living at Bethany .. it is not known through which of his children.

-----

4th generation: John Augustus S. Spangenberg ( Son of Thomas and Susanna ( Headley )... born Aug. 1, 1812, Bethany, Pa.
 .. died Dec. 6, 1881, Scranton, Pa., buried Forest Hill
 .. age 69 .. married, 1832, Susan Adelia Brown.

John Augustus ( called Col. Spangenberg -- his title of Colonel was won during the Mexican war ). John held much stock in the Delaware & Hudson Canal Co. of Honesdale, Pa. ... he was a merchant at both Bethany and Honesdale - later going to Archbald, Blakely twp, Luzerne Co., Pa. - where he kept the company store -- he held stock in the Coal Mine .. later he removed to Scranton, where he followed his trade of decorating ( which he had learned as a young man ) .. he died in Scranton -- age 69 -- John was a tall man -- over six feet, and " straight as an arrow -- he had a pleasing personality, and was liked by everyone -- he was very active up to his death .. and kept his faculties."

Susan Adelia Brown Spangenberg was a daughter of ..... Brown and wife ... who had been a Miss Emmons ( first names, nor dates, not known ). Her father died while she was still a small child, and her mother married again (2nd) to a Mr. Fish (?), and had more children. It is thought that Susan's grandfather was the John Brown who was killed at the Wyoming massacre, on July 3, 1778, near Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Nothing is known of this John Brown except that he was a soldier in the army - Rev., - he came home in June 1778 to help defend the people living in the Wyoming Valley from the British and Indians .. he, with over 300 others, was killed in the defence of Forty Fort ... he was from Plymouth twp, now Luzerne Co., but then part of Westmoreland, Litchfield Co., Conn.

The Browns ( Browne ) were English - had come to America at a very early date, and settled in Conn., later generations had migrated to the Wyoming Valley ( then Conn., now Luzerne Co., Pa. ) some time before the Rev. war.

The Emmons were also English, who had settled in Conn., and later generations removed to the Wyoming Valley, sometime around 1800. It is thought that they were descended from William Emmons, who came to Conn., from England in 1717/18.

Susan Adelia ( Brown ) Spangenberg was a pleasant person, of medium height, brown wavy hair, blue eyes, and a light complexion .. she had a benevolent disposition, and spent much time ( and money ) among the families of the poor Irish who worked in the mines .. she was active and alert up to the time of her death.

...was born April 4, 1810, on a farm in Slocum Hollow, later called Hyde Park, and now a part of Scranton, Pa.

...she died, suddenly, Nov. '10, 1881, at the family home in Scranton 71 years.. buried Forest Hill cemetery, Scranton.

John and Susan had 3 children:

- 1 - Frederick Augustus - born July 23, 1835 - at Honesdale, Pa.
died 1871 - York, Pa. ... married, 1857, Fanny Ilgenfritz.
( my ancestors - see later )
- 2 - Thomas Washington Galucia Augustus - born, 1839, at Honesdale - died May 8, 1844, Honesdale - age 5 years - buried Bethany.
- 3 - Frances Augusta - born 1846 - died .....? in Calif., after 1921 - married Capt. William Kellow ( 1845-1895 ) - no children.

5th generation: Frederick Augustus Spangenberg ( son of John and Susan )
.. born July 23, 1835, at Honesdale, Wayne Co., Pa.
.. died 1771, at York ( a mysterious accident - suicide ..?)

Frederick was a brilliant man - educated at Lehigh University ( Bethlehem, Pa.) for the law .. which he practiced at Honesdale for awhile, then was given the position of superintendent ( and attorney ) of the coal mines at Archbald, Luzerne Co., Pa... he had a friendly, forceful, personality, and was very popular ... was much in demand for 'after dinner' speaking ... and gave lectures on many different subjects...traveled widely. He was a talented musician, playing several different horned instruments - wrote some poetry. He had lost his right arm ( to the elbow ) when he was sixteen, in the explosion of a cannon while celebrating the Fourth of July.

In 1870 a depression hit the whole country, many of the coal mines closed, and he was soon out of a position .. he took to gambling to make some money ... and lost everything he had .. he then moved his family back to York ... where his wife's folks lived ... and soon after this was killed in an accident.

Frederick was over six feet tall, slender built, heavy dark brown hair, blue eyes. ... married July 3, 1857, at Bethany, by his grandfather, Squire Spangenberg, Frances Anna ( Fanny ) Ilgenfritz ( daughter of Jacob, Jr. and Eleanora Ilgenfritz of York, Pa. )

( see Ilgenfritz history )

Fanny was born, at York, Mar. 2, 1838

.. died July 20, 1930, at the home of her daughter, Nelly and Frank Dice, near Prescott, Washington .. buried in the Dice plot, at Waitsburg, Wash.

Fanny was very talented ... art and poetry ... she had received a good education at a private girls school in York. After the death of her husband it was necessary for her to support her children .. this she did by teaching in the public schools of York ... a position which she held for almost thirty-five years. In 1905, after an accident, in which both of her arms were broken, she and her mother ( who lived with her ) went out to the state of Washington to live with her daughter and her husband, Nelly and Frank Dice, in Walla Walla Co. Fanny had a pleasing personality, quiet and unassuming, but brilliant. She kept her faculties up to the last of her long life. She was barely five feet tall, slight built, medium brown, straight hair, hazel eyes, fair complexion.

Frederick and Fanny had 7 children, all born at Archbald:

1 - Eleanora Adelia ( Nelly - Ella ) - born May 8, 1858

THE STOUGH BRANCH OF MY FAMILY TREE

( Stauch - Stouch - Stou - Stow - Strauch - Slough - Stock - etc.)

My first Stough ancestor in America was probably the Jacob Stauch who arrived on the Ship Phoenix, at Philadelphia, on Sept. 15, 1749: Capt. John Mason, from Rotterdam, but last from Cowes, England. "550 Whole Freights, from Massau, Zweybrech, Wirtemberg, and Palatinate." Among them:

Jacob Stauch

Hans Georg Stauch ( wrote own names - probably brothers )

( Pa. German Pioneers, by Strassburger & Hinke: Vol. 1 - pg 409 )

1st generation: Jacob Stauch - born ....? in Germany
 .. died ca Dec. 7, 1784, Heidelberg twp., Berks Co., Pa.
 .. married Elisabetha Metz - she died prior to Sept. 1783
 5 known children.

On May 12, 1759, Jacob Stouch, of Heidelberg twp., Berks Co., was appointed administrator of the estate of his late brother-in-law George Metz, of Tulpehocken twp., Berks Co.

Jacob Stouch was a farmer, owned much land in Heidelberg twp., Berks Co., Pa. ... he was naturalized, at Phil. on April 12, 1762.

... he was probably in the Rev. war, but no authentic proof.

Jacob left a Will, written Sept. 6, 1783, probated Dec. 13, 1784, in which he mentions his five children ( but no wife - Elisabetha had died prior to 1783 )

"... to my son Jacob, the piece of land in Shamoken, and 25 lbs for his birth-right: ... to son Nicholas, the Plantation in Heidelberg twp., my present abode, and to pay to his brother and sisters 325 pounds: ... to son Jacob 25 pounds, to daughters, Marie Catharine, Sophia, and Elizabeth, each 100 lbs."

1 - Jacob Stouch, Jr. - born 1752 - died 1823
 ( my ancestor - see later )

2 - Nicholas - b, ...? - died ca Jan. 7, 1813 - Stoughstown, Cumberland Co., Pa.... married Margaret Sheffer (b, Jan. 1, 1758) (dau. of Nicholas and Juliana) Nicholas and Margaret had 9 known children:

*1 - Susanna - b, 1780

*2 - Elizabeth - b, 1782

*3 - John - b, Aug. 10, 1784

*4 - Polly ( Mary ) - probably M, .... Jacobs, and lived in Pickaway Co., Ohio ... she was a widow living in Stoughstown, in 1836, and had a son, Samuel Jacobs, living in Ohio.

*5 - Jacob - b, Sept. 8, 1789

*6 - Cathrine - b, 1787

*7 - William - d, 1841, lived in Stoughstown, had wife Elizabeth, son Samuel, who lived in Ohio - and other children. An interesting account of the settling of William's estate was found at Carlisle: "Account of John Stough, administrator of the estate of the late William Stough: funeral, $38.89; digging grave $2.00; hauling coffin from Stoughstown to Shippensburg $1.75; making coffin, $8.00; making shroud $2.81; for going to Indiana and returning, on business of estate, $98.00; for trouble and attention in his last illness $20.00" (how prices have changed since 1841! F.D.H.)

- *8 - Samuel - married Ap. 15, 1829, Mary E. Peebles, at Stoughstown.
lived and died at Mansfield, Richland Co., Ohio - had ch.
- *9 - Thomas - married Margaret .....?

- 3 - Mary Catharine ( Marie (dau. of Jacob (1st) & Elisabetha ( Metz ) Stouch) married May 21, 1771, John Paul Ernst.
- 4 - Sophia - b, June 25, 1751, (M, Peter Lower )
- 5 - Elizabeth - --- married Philip Sehl ( Seel )

2nd generation: Jacob Stouch ( later spelled Stough ) ( Son of Jacob and Elisabetha ) .. born 1752, Heidelberg twp., Berks Co., Pa. died Jan. 3, 1823, Stoughstown, Newton twp., Cumberland Co., Pa. .. buried Grace Reformed churchyard, Shippensburg, Pa. ... body moved to Spring Hill cemetery when the new church was built.

Excerpt from a newspaper, Shippensburg, Jan. ? 1823: " Jacob Stough died on Saturday evening, Jan. 3, 1823, in Stoughstown, he was Jacob, Sr., and was in the 71st year of his age. He was a Soldier in the Rev. war, and throughout his life supported those principles which in early life he defended."

Jacob was a farmer. In 1773 he took up land in Augusta twp, Northumberland Co., Pa.... in 1782 he took up more land ( same place ), a tract called ' Stouchburg '. In 1790 we find him living in Cumberland Co. ... in 1799 he, and wife, Catharine, joined the Poplar Lutheran Church: Marie, John and Susanna Stouch were confirmed the same day. In 1803 he bought land in Newton twp., Cumberland Co., where he lived until his death in 1823.
